TIBURÓN GOLF ACADEMY

At Tiburón Golf Academy, we believe every golfer deserves the necessary tools to reach their fullest potential. In order to do so, we believe each golfer requires coaching, process, and training.

COACHING: In all sports, especially golf, the “quick fix” is not the solution. Instead, a proper approach is required. Having a trusting relationship with a coach is one of them. Tiburón Golf Academy provides a diverse team of coaches to help achieve and exceed your personal goals.

PROCESS: In order to get from where you are now to where you want to be a process is required. Our team identifies individuals particular strengths and weaknesses through a physical screening assessment. This allows our team to tailor the best process to suit each students objectives and abilities.

TRAINING: Upon completion of this process, your instructor will train each student in each key component of the game; short game, full swing, mental approach and course management. These steps allows each student to learn and grow their respective game.
